CENSUS OF IRELAND FOR THE YEAR 1861.

POPULATION BY TOWNLANDS.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE WILLIAM FREDERICK, EARL OF CARLISLE, K.G.,
LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND,
&c., &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, the Commissioners appointed by your Excellency to carry into effect the provisions of the Act 23rd and 24th Victoria, cap. 62, had the honour of submitting, on the 15th of July, 1861, "Enumeration Abstracts" of the Census,—the contents of which are more particularly noticed in Part II. of our Reports. We now beg to present the two first Volumes of Part I. of the Census Publications showing the Area, Population, and Number of Houses in 1841, 1851, and 1861 for each Townland, Electoral Division, and Poor Law Union in Ireland, and also their Valuation in 1851 and 1861. These Volumes are for the provinces of Leinster and Munster; those for Ulster and Connaught are in a forward state, and will soon be ready for presentation to your Excellency. For public convenience, the work is also issued by Counties.

The Townlands have been arranged by Counties, Baronies, and Parishes, as in 1851, the paging being, so far as practicable, identical with that of the Townland Census published for that year, in order to allow of the Index to that useful work being also available for the present publication. Since the Census of 1851 changes have been made in the boundaries of a few parishes in the province of Ulster under the 7 & 8 Geo. IV., cap. 43, and the Boundary Survey Acts, 17 Vic., cap. 17; 20 & 21 Vic., cap. 45; and 22 & 23 Vic., cap. 8, to the provisions of which reference is made in our Report on Ages and Education. Owing to these alterations certain townlands will not appear on the particular page given in the Index for 1851, but a tabular statement of the changes will be found at the end of the Tables for the province of Ulster; according to which the paging of the present Townland Census may be inserted in that Index in those cases where it differs from the paging given in 1851.

The following are the alterations referred to, viz.:—

County of Antrim.—In the baronies of Kilconway and Lower Toome, the parish of Ahoghill has been divided and now forms three distinct parishes—Ahoghill, Craigs, and Portglenone. In the barony of Upper Dunluce, the townland of Tullaghgore, formerly co-extensive with the parish of the same name, now forms part of the parish of Ballymoney.

County of Down.—In the barony of Kinelarty, a portion of the parish of Dromara has been detached and now constitutes the parish of Magherahamlet.

County of Londonderry.—In the barony of Coleraine, certain townlands have been detached from the parish of Dunboe, to form the parish of Formoyle. In the barony of Keenaght, some townlands have been detached from the parishes of Balteagh, Bovevagh, and Tamlaght Finlagan, to form the parish of Carrick. In the barony of Loughinsholin, four townlands have been transferred from the parish of Maghera to that of Killelagh.

Counties of Londonderry and Tyrone.—In the barony of Tirkeeran, county of Londonderry, and of Strabane Lower, county of Tyrone, certain townlands have been detached from the parishes of Cumber Lower, Cumber Upper, and Banagh, to form the parish of Learmount.

For some observations on the territorial divisions of Ireland we beg to refer to our Report on the Ages and Education of the people, which forms Part II. of the Census Publications.

For the valuation of the townlands in 1861, by Counties, Poor Law Unions, and Electoral Divisions, compiled in the General Valuation Office, we are indebted to Sir Richard Griffith.

We have the honour to be

Your Excellency's very faithful Servants,

WILLIAM DONNELLY, Registrar-General, } Chief Commissioner.

GEORGE W. ABRAHAM,
